Touken Ranbu "sword personification training game" takes famous swords from Japanese history and interprets them as bishōnen. Nitroplus designed the characters and scenario. The game launched in Japan in 2015, and it has more than 1 million users. The game has acquired a large female fan base and inspired a wide range of merchandise, as well as several manga and anime released October 2016.

Nelke Planning, professional performance group, will be performing Touken Ranbu at Japan Pavilion in India Gaming Show 2017, at Pragati Maidan, Delhi from February 2nd to 5th, 2017. Nelke Planning is adapting the game into a "Stage Musical". The musical will host its first performance 2.5 Theater in India during India Gaming Show.
